and "Parsifal," "Siegfried's Rhine Journey" and the "Kaiserreich," all with the earnestness and understanding that Mr. Arens's young men have taught us to expect and to respect.

Orville Harold, by his beautiful singing of "Spirito Gentile" from Donizetti's "La Favorita," stirred a large but rather laud audience at the Carnegie Hall on Saturday afternoon.

Eleonore Altman gave a piano recital at Aeolian Hall on Saturday evening. She played well, without affectations or mannerisms, and won respect.

"Tristan und Isolde" drew a very large audience to the Metropolitan Opera House on Saturday afternoon despite the fact that the performance, under Mr. Toscanini's direction, which was generally excellent, was made distinctive by Olive Fremstad's lovely impersonation of Isolde.

Belieged, Lambert Murphy and Julius Hayer completed the cast. "Faust" was Saturday night's opera at the Metropolitan.

HONOR WRITER'S LAST WISH.

Six hundred members of the Ragged Edge Club plan to march behind the hearse which will carry the body of Zoe Anderson Norris from Herrlich's undertaking shop at No. 109 Avenue A.

A HAPPY CHILD IN JUST A FEW HOURS

Mothers can rest easy after giving "California Syrup of Figs," because in a few hours all the clogged-up waste, sour bile and fermenting food gently move out of the bowels.

Eleonore Altman gave a piano recital at Aeolian Hall on Saturday evening. She played well, without affectations or mannerisms, and won respect.
